

Cloud Native Streaming Platform Netflix-inspired

Santiago Antonio Gualteros Bustos

Nicolas Castro Rivera

Andrés Julian Vargas Medina

Erick Santiago Buitrago Peña

1 Executive Summary

Netflix is a streaming platform that provides this service for subscriptions. Whose vision is entertaining customers through series and movies. This content can be accessed around the world by millions of customers those who want to watch their favorites shows at any time. For that reason is an application demands great availability, good performance with heavy content such as multimedia and personalized experience with assertive recommendations.

2 System Context Diagram:

C4 Level 1 diagram with all external actors and interactions

3 Architecture Diagram:

Service decomposition diagram showing all services, groupings, and interaction topology

4 Data Architecture

Storage strategy per service, data models, consistency requirements, and transaction boundaries

5 Communication Architecture

Communication matrix or diagram with sync/async justification for each interaction

6 Architecture Decision Records

Minimum five ADRs covering the most significant design decisions

7 Requirements Traceability:

Table mapping each functional requirement (FR-XX) from Delivery 1 to the service(s) responsible for satisfying it

References

- [1] OSCHINA, “Analysis of CDN and Open Connect Technology Behind Netflix’s Instant Playback Without Lag,” 2026. Available: https://my.oschina.net/emacs_7998601/blog/19561072